11 It appears that each case of the kind is being treated as a precedent for the subsequent one and that a pension under Section 22 of the Bangalore Municipal Law is being recommended as a matter of course for long and satisfactory service. Even in the case of -- pensionable employees, pensions are granted for fairly long and approved service only and some exceptional grounds would seem necessary for invoking section 22.

The following extract from Secretary of State's despatch printed on page 21 of the Appendices to the C.S.R. seems relevant in this connexion.

> "I desire to express my general disinclination to increase the non-effective charges by the grant of any pensions in excess of what the Regulations of the Service provide, save in cases of very exceptional and distinguished service. Mere length of service, however, faithfully performed, is not, I consider, in itself a sufficient ground for exceptional rewards". (Secretary of State, No.92, dated March 1877).

I think the case may be remitted back to the Municipal Commission for reconsideration.

12 I suggest that Before we consider this particular case, PMC should inform us

(1). What general policy should in his opinion be in such cases

(2). Roughly what are the annual charges now on pensions to inferior Servants under Sec 22.

(3). What he considers should be the maximum annual charges to the Commission under that Section

13 Since 1921 nine pensions have been granted under Section 22. Three of the recipients are dead. The total amount paid in pensions since 1921 is Rs.3,147/-. An average grant of one pension in two years and an average cost of Rs.175/- per annum, cannot be regarded as excessive. I do not think it is necessary either to lay down a general policy or to consider a maximum annual charge. Section 22 is quite unfettered in its terms, and each case may be regarded as an act of discretion on its merits. In actual practice pensions are not granted unless there has been 30 years' service, but I have issued instructions that the length of ~~time~~ service should be carefully investigated and definitely established before a recommendation is made in the future.

Under section 22 of the Bangalore Municipal Law, the Commission may, with the sanction of the Resident give a gratuity to, or purchase an annuity for, any officer or servant retiring from their service. This section was interpreted to include the grant of pension and such pensions were granted to Municipal employees from time to time. Grant of pension to widows of Municipal employees is not contemplated by section 22. If the widow herself has worked in the Department, the Commission should revise the wording of their resolution so as to bring out that Thimmi be granted a pension for her services in the Engineering Department. A 'family pension' cannot be granted to the widow, as her husband did not die in the circumstances described in Art. 746-B or 746-D of the C.S.R.

If approved the P.M.C. may see file U.O. for remarks.

As the late Pentanna was not in permanent employment under the Municipal Commission the Civil Service Regulations do not apply to his case.. The grant of a gratuity to his widow will be purely an act of grace. The peculiar circumstances under which the late Municipal employee died justifies the award of a gratuity to his widow.

To

The Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore,

SIR,

I have the honour to forward, herewith, an application for pension from Mr. V. S. Loganatha Mudaliar, late Plague Supervisor, Health Department. He had put in a temporary service of 20 years, 1 month and 13 (17) days under Government before the amalgamation of the Plague Department with the Health Department under the Municipal Commission. He was discharged from Government service on the 1st September 1920 and remained out of employ from that date to the 14th September 1920 (inclusive). He was entertained in Municipal service on the 15th September 1920 and his officiating service from that date to the 9th August 1922 i.e., 1 year, 10 months and 25 days counts for pension under exemption (e) to Article 420, Civil Service Regulations. He was made permanent in Municipal service with effect from the 10th August 1922. His permanent service under the Commission from the 10th August 1922 to the 17th July 1938 (date of retirement) comes to 15 years, 11 months and 8 days. The Commission propose to condone the interruption of 14 days from the 1st September 1920 to the 14th September 1920 under the provisions of Article 422, Civil Service Regulations. His qualifying service under the Commission including the officiating period of 1 year, 10 months and 25 days comes to 17 years, 10 months and 3 days which added to his service of 20 years, 1 month and 13 days under Government makes his total qualifying service 37 years, 11 months and 16 days.

2. Although the Plague Department was temporary while under Government, the services of discharged employees at the time of amalgamation were treated as permanent under the powers delegated to the Hon'ble the Resident by note (b) to Article 361-A, Civil Service Regulations and they were granted pensions and gratuities which were shared by the Government and the Municipal Commission in the proportion of 3 : 1 vide proceedings of the Hon'ble the Resident No.3034 dated the 1st April 1922. The Local Government in their Proceedings No.9825 dated the 24th September 1927 amended by the Secretary to the Resident's Addendum No.5200 dated the 29th May 1928 agreed to consider the question of proportionate share of the pension to be borne by Government when the employees mentioned therein actually retired. The applicant Mr. V. S. Loganatha Mudaliar is one of the employees referred to therein. As regards the verification of his services under Government, a copy of the Municipal Auditor's note dated the 30th November 1938 is enclosed, as also a calculation sheet showing the apportionment of Government and Municipal shares.

Subject:- Verification of services of Supervisors, Plague Department.

With reference to your letter No.8865/35 dated 20th July 1936, I have the honour to inform you that letter dated 27th October 1934 stated to have been addressed by the Health Officer does not appear to have been received in this office. On receipt of his letter dated 5th May 1936 however, a thorough search for the old records from 1898 relating to the Plague Department was made and nothing could be traced.

A solemn declaration has therefore been obtained from Gaffar Baig in respect of non-verifiable plague services as required under Article 908 (e) Civil Service Regulations and is sent herewith together with testimonies of two contemporary servants.

Similar action may kindly be taken in respect of Plague Supervisors V.S. Loganathan and B. Muthacharry when necessary.

The delay, unavoidable in the circumstances, is much regretted.

A copy of the resolution is enclosed.

The circumstances under which the accident to Pentanna took place have been explained in detail in Mr. Williams' letter dated the 2nd December 1937. HB. 1/11/1939.

Letter dated the 23rd August 1939 from Adilakeshmamma, wife of late Pentanna Reddy, Bow Lane "C" Street, Bangalore, to the President, Municipal Commission, C. & M. Station, Bangalore.

I, the petitioner, Adilakeshmamma, wife of late Pentanna Reddy, who was an employee in the Municipal Workshop, of the Engineering Department, beg to state that my husband, after a protracted illness on account of septic poison, as a result of the accident he met some years back while on duty, died on the 4th instant in the Isolation Hospital, Bangalore.

I am actually starving with the other members of my family ever since my husband was disabled and the small pension of Rs.7/-, so kindly granted by you, was not enough to meet with the medical treatment for him.

I beg to state, revered Sir, that you would very kindly consider my case and grant me a small pension, considering that my husband's honest services and his accident while on duty.

Please be kind enough to allow me the pension of my late husband, for the month of July 1939, which had to be paid to him early this month. Thanking you once again.

For which act of kindness, I shall ever pray for your long life.
